

PERSONAL

John Langville was born in Baltimore and raised in Anne Arundel County, MD.

John met his wife, Kristine during his senior year in high school and they have been happily married for 22 years. John and Kris moved to SC in 1999 when Kris was asked to transfer with her company.

The Langvilles also have a cat named Sebastian who is 5 months old. They are members of Woodruff Road Presbyterian church and have been active in the church choir and other areas of need.

EDUCATION

John graduated from Northeast High School, was active in theatre and was awarded many honors for his skill in track and cross country. He also participated in the high school chorus.

After graduation John attended University of MD, College Park majoring in computer science. In his second year, John transferred to the local community college. Due to lack of funding, he finished his computer education at Control Data Institute, a local yet renowned school specializing in this field.

After several years in the industry, John decided he wanted to work on cars and attended Lincoln Technical School which specializes in automotives. John attended Lincoln Tech while working full-time and supporting his wife.

EMPLOYMENT

Mr. Langville has worked hard at various skilled labor and technical jobs since 1981 knowing the value of a dollar. John is a certified auto Technician, holding seven out of eight certificates to qualify as a Master Technician. He presently works for a national automotive parts and service retailer in Greenville. He has been with the company since 1996 with a short term separation while working for another company.

POLITICAL EXPERIENCE

John is a former member of the Republican Party and was precinct president for Mauldin 3 for four years before joining the Constitution Party. John attended many Republican committee meetings.

John ran for SC State House District 28 two years ago on the Constitution Party ticket and campaigned on approximately $2,000, reaching out to about 9,000 homes in his district. He wore out two pairs of shoes and won approximately 20% of the vote. John knows how to campaign on shoe string budget.

INTERESTS

John's interests mainly include working around the house and playing with Sebastian as his work schedule is volatile and usually exceeds 40 hours a week. He helps other patriots with their car repairs as well.
